Retired Membership Policy

The retired rate of subscription is available, upon request, to those Corporate members who have retired from the work force by reasons pertaining to age, circumstance or health. "Retired" is defined as spending no more than 20% of time (or one day a week) on income earning activities. Please note that members on the Retired roll are obliged to notify the Institute of any change in circumstance which may require their transfer back to the 'active' list, eg. Persons who resume any income-earning activity.
